Mr. Lykkebak,

As requested, attached are all of my 2017 business account bank statements. I may have to break the attachments up into two emails in order to send. I am also attaching an excel spreadsheet that details each expenditure that is not related to a subcontractor invoice. The subcontractor invoice payments I have outlined on a document I left with Karen on Friday afternoon (Accounts Payable and Accounts Receivable), and which I am also attaching to this email. Hope this helps. Thank you.

David

Mr. Lykkebak,

This is David Rivera, who met with you in your office last week regarding my tax preparation for 2017. I hope all is well with you. I have compiled much of the information you requested and wanted to convey the progress I have made in this email. I hope this information can get us well on our way toward ultimate completion of my 2017 personal and corporate taxes. Here is my progress thus far on the items we discussed:

1. W-9s: I have received one W-9 and am still awaiting three W-9s that are outstanding.
2. EFTPS: I have signed up online for both my corporation and personally and I am awaiting final documents from the IRS
3. 2015 and 2016 taxes: I am attaching both years corporate and personal taxes to this email.
